Foreword

For the first time, Citizens Wealth Platform (CWP) is partnering with the Centre for Human Rights and Conflict Resolution (CHRRCR) to produce a Budget Pull Out for Kogi State. This is in tandem with CWP's objective of ensuring that public resources are made to work and be of benefit to all. For CHRRCR, this strengthens its resolve to promote and protect human rights whilst enhancing the ability of persons resident in Kogi State and those interested in the budget to hold the government to account for public resources.

This is not the usual Capital Budget Pull Out of CWP. It contains information on salaries, overheads and capital estimates of selected high spending Ministries, Departments and Agencies (MDAs) of Kogi State Government. The MDAs are the Government House; Ministry of Agriculture; Works, Lands, Housing and Urban Development; Education, Science and Technology; Secretary to the State Government; Finance and Health. They were selected because they contain the bulk of the expenditure in the 2017 Financial Year.

By section 24 of the Constitution of the Federal Republic of Nigeria 1999 (as amended), it is the duty of every Nigerian to make positive and useful contributions to the advancement, progress and well-being of the community where he resides. In this Pull Out, CWP and CHRRCR are facilitating the performance of this civic duty and remove the boredom of every citizen having to search through thousands of pages of the state budget to find the projects in her community or of interest to him. Further, the anti-corruption campaign of the present federal administration will be strengthened when citizens become more interested in budget monitoring. Transparency and accountability are not usually products of written legal or policy documents; they come from a peoples push and insistence that governance processes must be open. Also, budgetary value for money is enhanced when the public exercise scrutiny and oversight over the management of public expenditure.

Kogi people have nothing to lose by engaging in budget monitoring. Rather, they have everything to gain. We need to regain the public fiscal space by holding government to account for its routine budgetary promises. From this little beginning in Kogi State, we shall make progress and improve value for money in Nigeria.

This is part of efforts to domesticate the Convention on the Elimination of all Forms of Discriminations against Women (CEDAW). This is to enhance transparency and accountability in governance, being the first of its kind in Nigeria at State level. CHRCR also:

- Co-ordinated Voters Registration Observations in the entire 21 Local Governments of the Kogi State in 2011 in partnership with Alliance for Credible Elections (ACE)
- Co-ordinated for the Economic and Financial Crimes Commission (EFCC), the Anti-Corruption Revolution Ancor in the North Central.
